Chapter 1

This opening paragraph starts the first chapter of the manuscript test, long enough to wrap across more than one line so we can see the normal paragraph flow.

This second paragraph has underline, ~~strikethrough~~, highlight, a , an inline link, and a reference link.

> This block quote is deliberately long so that it wraps across at least four lines in the printed manuscript, which lets us measure its left indent, whether it has a right indent as well, how its lines are spaced, and whether the first line of the quote is indented like a normal paragraph or not at all.

This paragraph follows the long quote.

> This is the first paragraph of a two-paragraph block quote.
> This is the second paragraph of the same block quote.

This paragraph follows the two-paragraph quote.
